Al-Faris Information Technology Selects Plexis Healthcare Systems Claims Processing Manager

Plexis Healthcare Continues its World Marketplace Expansion by Moving into the Middle East

Ashland, OR – April 15, 2009 - Plexis Healthcare Systems announced recently that Al-Faris Information Technology (AFiT), a Kuwaiti company located in Kuwait City, Kuwait, has selected the company's Plexis Claims Manager (PCM) to perform back-office TPA claim processing services in the Middle East. AFiT will also use other Plexis partners, Mitan Technologies for real-time eligibility checking and claims processing from the point of service and Microsoft Dynamics Great Plains, for complete integrated A/P, A/R and general ledger as part of the overall solution. AFiT, a publicly traded company on the Kuwaiti stock exchange, provides innovative e-Business solutions that enable growing companies to increase their revenues and market share.

Plexis will work with the AFiT team to install, implement and test PCM and the other partners' systems to ensure AFiT becomes a superior model for TPA services in the Middle East region, further increasing Plexis' presence in that part of the world.

"We are extremely pleased that AFiT selected us as their claims and benefit administration partner," commented Jorge Yant, CEO of Plexis Healthcare Systems. "They are a very dynamic company with a large presence throughout the Mid-East and we look forward to them helping us expand our presence throughout the region."

The Plexis Claims Manager is an integrated healthcare information system providing complete benefit administration, claims processing, premium billing and reporting features for organizations in a competitive healthcare IT environment. By providing benefits administration software tailored to promote flexibility and efficiency, Plexis Claims Manager provides an exceptional return on investment.
